the bank. Finally after much delay, the committee have accepted the offer of the London and North Western, who give the bulk of the guarantee. Money on the loan is thus secured.

On the Chance for Success.

After the vote Tuesday, the English will have to take to the sea, and the ship will be stopped by the French in case of the opening of the narrow straits. The English will not have a chance to make any attack for several days, as it has been decided not to arrive in the Channel until it is impossible to make any further progress. The English will have to wait for the French to be able to make any attack. The English will have to wait for the French to be able to make any attack.

Another point to stress the integrity and trustworthiness of Infante was given Thursday afternoon. Infante has been making their trials over to the

This was little illustration is a good characteristic trait of DeSnoia. He was really in “Forthrightness.”

As they returned DeSnoia came up to Third Avenue for the waiting car and thanked thoughtfully for some one having had a bad and a good one to show to New Bedford, and he was glad that they had passed on, who is there to win.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pelucid Halifax River. Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon the waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water. See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon the beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood. Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across the magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from the tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings. See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artists' brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines run riot in the trees; see the cryptogamons forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty. Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottages. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and, as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another, so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering, "What next?" It is not only the exterior of many of these homes which rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed, it is the interior arrangement and artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as another wonder. Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed, but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have wrought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for the pavements, pavements that look and act like granite, —where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruit.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "flowers and Squirrels, birds, and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare goober there is a bunny ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and know into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers. Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round you are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where (Smiling spring its earliest visit paid And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate; another household has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, prolificacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish you.

The Fastest Autos and The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or Timbukto, and you will be "shown." Here is where the world's record for speed is broken with every recurring season. Autos, the biggest, the fastest, and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousands of flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2 horse power, up to a 200-horse power, and all degrees of speed from acanter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit, when you do the roads and the beach are yours.
The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down into your wallet only for coin for auto, and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

SEABREEZE and DAYTONA BEACH, two charming progressive towns on the tax Peninsula, are geographically although incorporated as municipalities. The towns the peninsula are a half distance of from three and to four miles, and extend west from the surging sea to the Atlantic Ocean to the Halifax the beautiful tide-water sets them apart from Daytona which they have close community by means of three bridges, as well a half-hour ferry service.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach are essentially summer and winter resorts and are making handsome new friends every year among those who desire to escape the discomforting extremes of heat and cold, and their hotels and boarding houses are now receiving splendid patronage from the most discriminating class of tourists.

The mean average temperature is degrees in the summer and 70 degrees in the winter, with an occasional extra rise or drop of a few days duration, marks this as one of the most healthful locations in any section of the country, north, east, south or west.

The ocean itself, with its marvelous beach, hard as macadam and smooth as a floor, is the greatest attraction, although earth and air and sky seem to have entered into a combination to enhance its every charm. The beach is the famous automobile race course where every world's straightaway record has been made, and all these records it continues to hold without rivalry.

The sand of this famous speedway is composed largely of the shells of the coquina clam, which are about one-half inch long and very hard.
For ages Nature has been rolling them up, washing them back into the surf and pulverizing them. Examined under the microscope each particle is round, unfit for mortar, builders say, because its smoothness prevents its holding together, yet, strange to contemplate, the very moment a wave leaves the wet, apparently soft beach, these round particles settle down into a cement almost as hard as asphalt, beyond the comprehension of one who has not seen it. Repairs are unnecessary, as twice each 24 hours it is entirely rebuilt by the tides.

The beach has a width of 300 to 500 feet, and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven or eight hours for automobiling some part of each day.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach each have a permanent population of approximately 1500. Sanitary ordinances are strictly enforced, streets and sidewalks are well kept, and new streets are being opened as fast as the increasing population demands. Besides hotels and boarding houses there is ample cottage accommodation for all winter visitors.

Seabreeze contains a handsome opera house and a Congregational Church; at Daytona Beach is a M. E.
Church. An excellent high school is situated near the division line between the two towns. Both towns have enterprising business establishments, as is evidenced by the advertisements on the left and right.

All the attractiveness of Seabreeze applies to Daytona Beach, the two towns being so similarly situated.
The development of Daytona Beach has been fully as phenomenal as its sister on the north, and each year there is a substantial growth. The great sand dunes have been leveled and handsome homes have been built for both winter and all-year-round occupancy. Flowering shrubs have been planted, which are covered with a wealth of bloom both summer and winter.

Work of rebuilding the Clarendon hotel is now in progress. This magnificent fire-proof structure, which is to contain 250 rooms, when completed will be the peer of any hotel in Florida. The site is immediately north of the clubhouse of the Florida East Coast Automobile Association.
The Ocean Pier is a great attraction to fishermen and it is lined summer and winter with enthusiastic disciples of Izaak Walton, who find it nothing unusual to land fish weighing several hundred pounds.

SPACES FOR PARKING GOING FAST.GENERAL INFORMATION REGARDING TUESDAY'S BIG MATCH RACE.

Parking spaces for automobiles for the match race Tuesday are being rapidly sold.

All parking space reservations must be secured from W. M. Hankins at the Atwood Pharmacy, corner of Beach street and Volusia avenue.

As low tide is about 4:00 p. m., on Tuesday, the races will start about 3:00 o'clock and all cars must be in their places by 2:30. At that hour all approaches will be closed and no cars admitted to the beach. No cars will be allowed to leave their spaces until after the races, which will last until about 4:30.

These rules are made for the protection of every one concerned as it is impossible for a driver travelling at the rate of two miles a minute to turn to avoid any obstruction on the beach and as the finishes are in front of the parking spaces the highest speed will be made there.

These rules will be strictly enforced as the course has been placed under the police control of the Sheriff of Volusia County and his deputies.

Additional information will be found on another page of the Daily News

BALTIMORE & OHIOLABOR TROUBLES SETTLED.

BALTIMORE, March 12—After a conference between Labor Commissioner Neal, Interstate Commerce Chairman Knapp and trainmen and conductors of the Baltimore & Ohio Railway, an amicable settlement was reached today both sides conceding.

VAUDEVILLE AT CRYSTALTHEATRE NEXT WEEK.

BEGINNING NEXT WEEK HIGH CLASS VAUDEVILLE WILL BE ADDED TO THE MOVING PICTURE SHOW.

Commencing next week the popular Crystal Theater will give high class vaudeville entertainments in addition to the moving picture program.

The Crystal has established a reputation for its excellent selection of moving picture films and the house is nightly filled with a crowd of well pleased people, both visitors and regular residents of the city; in fact it is the point of attraction for the old and young desiring an hour's pleasant diversion, but Manager Titus, now sole owner of the theater, is determined to spare no trouble or expense in catering to the pleasure of his patrons and therefore has decided to add special features in the vaudeville line which will appeal to public favor.

FREE LECTURES AT THE ARMORY TOMORROW

A rare opportunity is afforded the citizens and visitors of Daytona to hear a celebrated lecturer two interesting and instructive lectures on Sunday March 13th at 3:00 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. at the Armory. His subjects, "Where Are The Dead?" and "The Rich Man and Lazarus," are themes of unusual interest. The speaker, Mr. Walter H. Bundy, V. D. M., of Brooklyn, N. Y., has delivered these lectures all over the English speaking world and is recognized as one of the greatest Bible Exegetes of our day. The lectures are free. No collection will be taken. All are welcome.

SALE AT RIDGEWOODHEIGHTS SUCCESSFUL.

MOST OF THE LOTS DISPOSED OF AT YESTERDAY'S SALE AT FAIR PRICES.

The sale of lots at Ridgewood Heights conducted by William I. Phillips yesterday, was a success and most of the lots were disposed of at an average price of $5.00 per front foot.

L. O. Smith, of Philadelphia, was the winner of the lot which was given away free.

Mr. Phillips demonstrated that he knows how to conduct an auction sale, and what is more he does it in a manner satisfactory to the public and keeps every promise that he makes.

MUCH GAYETY AT THE HOTEL PALM BEACH.

PALM BEACH, March 11—The arrival of The Constitution at the dock of the Hotel Palm Beach was a scene of gayety for there were as many to greet the boat as came down on her. Everyone seemed to have enjoyed the trip and many have been waiting here to go back on the boat to Daytona. The crowds at Palm Beach have not been able to get accommodations on the trains and many are the remarks that another boat should be put on the trip between Palm Beach and Daytona. The next boat on this line that arrives at Palm Beach from Daytona will bring passengers in time for the Gala Week of the Palm Beach season, when the fireworks carnival and big match races between the crack boats are scheduled for next Friday and Saturday and a week of dancing and gayety at the hotels. The season is far from over at Palm Beach and a big Military Ball is to take place here next week when the boys from the Military Academy come for their annual drill on the big base ball grounds.

Among those who came on the Constitution and registered at the Hotel Palm Beach were: William Sankey and wife, Pittsburgh; J. Gerard Craig, Philadelphia; Mrs. Purcell D. Hill, Helen D. Hill, Chicago; Mrs. Della Bishop, Alpine, N. Y.; J. McComb, Jr., Jacksonville; Miss Z. A. Powers, Miss Tagleabus, Brooklyn; L. D. Welsh and wife, Minneapolis; C. S. Ridgway, Columbus, N. Jersey.

STIFF NORTHER AGAINWHIPS BEACH.

THE NORTHER BLOWING THIS MORNING IS WHIPPING THE OCEAN BEACH INTO FINE SHAPE FOR THE RACES.

A norther, such as prevails today, always irons out the wrinkles in the ocean beach, and leaves its surface hard and smooth, and Dame Nature has never yet failed to provide this beneficent breeze for the world's famous racing beach just previous to the great race meets.

It is a singular coincidence, but so marked that it is common talk that within a few days of all the automobile carnivals the wind has swung into the North and put the beach into just the best possible condition for the races. Certainly Daytona is a favored spot.

KINGSTON.

KINGSTON, March 11—M. Schuman and G. W. Rich made a trip to New Smyrna on Monday on business with the tax collector, going down the river and back on the Uncle Sam. A very pleasant trip.

The well known Orr Brothers, of Springdale, Pa., are registered at the Ferndale again for their third season in Fla. They came over from St. Petersburg via Orlando arriving on the 9th and were welcomed by their many friends here. They think a tour of the state would be incomplete without a stay of at least half the season at Kingston and Daytona.

E. Deen, of Lakeland, formerly a merchant of Daytona, stopped at the Ferndale one night this week, on a business and pleasure trip to Daytona.

Mrs. Walsh, who has been for some time visiting here with relatives, the Hawley family, left this week for Detroit Mich.

ORMOND HOTEL NEWS

The children of the hotel gave an entertainment for the Employees Sick Benefit fund on Tuesday which was from every point of view a most successful evening. The children originated the idea and carried it through with no more adult help than was absolutely necessary. The result was a substantial addition to the employees fund and a delightful diversion for the guests.

The evening begun with a series of tableaux. Elizabeth Goodrich appeared as Cinderella and as the Contrary Mistress Mary; Helen Phipps as Buster Brown and a sleepy little mortal bidding "Goodnight;" Dorothy Phipps as the unfortunate Little Bo Peep; Billy Irons as Simple Simon and the careless Little Boy Blue; Edith Williams as timid Miss Muffet; and Clay Irons and Edith Williams together as Jack and Jill, both before and after their celebrated misfortune. Every picture was charming and the young people held their poses steadily with the most realistic expressions.

Helen Phipps danced the jig of the Irish Washerwoman to great applause. This lively daughter of Erin did not stop her dance while she washed and wrung and hung out and ironed the clothes and was as graceful as could be. Little Miss Phipps danced, too, in the next feature of the evening, the charming bit of a play called "Little White Shoes." As Karen, a self-willed young lady, she bought a pair of white shoes which her aged and nearly blind grandmother (Dorothy Phipps) had forbidden. Allan Shaw, who in the first scene was a hard-working shoemaker; in the second was a stern old soldier who bewitched the naughty little lady's lovely new shoes. Karen danced away and Howard Knight, the coachman chased her in vain. The final scene showed Warren dancing despairingly through the dark woods. The worthy forester and his son (Allan Shaw and Billy Irons) took to their heels at sight, very wisely, for the executioner soon appeared (Edith Williams) and was about to chop off the too-agile feet when the Fairy Queen (Elizabeth Goodrich) appeared and to Havana and will remain at Ormond for the rest of the season. Mrs. Phipps has also returned from a trip south, reaching Ormond in time to see her two daughters in the role of leading women at the entertainment.

FAIRBANKS SAILS

FOR UNITED STATES.

LIVERPOOL, March 12—Former Vice President and Mrs. Fairbanks sailed for home today on the Mauretania.

A Mean Thrust.

"Ten thousand dollars for a dog!" he exclaimed as he looked up from his newspaper. "Do you believe any one ever paid any such price, Maria?"

"I'm sure I don't know, James," she returned without stopping her needle work even for a moment. "Does the paper say that much was paid?"

"Yes. There's an article on valuable dogs, and it's speaking of one that was sold for $10,000. I don't believe it."

"It may be true, James," she said quietly. "Some of those high bred animals bring fancy prices, and there's no particular reason why the paper should lie about it."

"I know that, Maria, but just think of it, just try to grasp the magnitude of that sum in your weak feminine mind. You don't seem to realize it—$10,000 for a dog! Why, hang it, Maria, that's more than I'm worth!"

"I know that, James, but some are worth more than others."

She went on calmly with her sewing, while he fumed and spluttered for a moment and then dropped the subject, especially the weak feminine part of it.

Quick Time Music.

A music teacher in Chicago was recently approached by a lady from the interior who confided to him her intention of taking piano lessons and inquired as to terms, etc. These proving satisfactory, she went on to explain that she was desirous of accomplishing a rapid course. The professor assured her that she might learn a great deal in twenty lessons.

"Good," said the woman. "I've got only a limited time in Chicago, so I must contrive to get the twenty lessons into that."

"How long are you to be here?" she was asked.

"Three weeks."

"Twenty lessons in three weeks?" exclaimed the astonished teacher. "You could never do that!"

"Oh, yes, I could!" returned the woman. "Couldn't I, Marie?" turning to a friend for support. "I could take two lessons a day, or perhaps I could take the whole at once. Twenty lessons, one after another, would only take ten hours." — St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Eighth Annual Daytona Beach Speed CarnivalMATCH RACE BETWEEN

Speed Tournament March 22, 23 and 24GENERAL INFORMATION

An admission fee of 25 cents each day will be charged all spectators within the enclosure to the races, both the match event and the record trials. The meet is not conducted as a money-making event, but the small charges are made to help meet the enormous expense of conducting the meets.

A fee of 50 cents will be charged all automobiles and carriages parking west of the clubhouse along Halifax avenue. The Florida East Coast Automobile Association has leased this property for the occasion and will exercise supervision over it.

Parking spaces for automobiles will be provided on the beach at $2.00 per day, or $5.00 for all the events in addition to the regular admission price. These spaces may be purchased in advance at Hankins' Drug store, and the purchasers will be entitled to the spaces which they select, the first applying to have the choice.

The Ocean Beach has been set aside as a race course March 15, and March 22, 23, 24, 25 and 26, 1910, and the Sheriff of Volusia County, and the Florida East Coast Automobile Association jointly will have charge of the same.

Those desiring to obtain privileges of selling refreshments in front of the clubhouse may apply to the Secretary.

No persons except officials will be allowed on the course during the races or while cars are being tried out and anyone disregarding this rule will be subject to arrest.

Owners of dogs are especially requested to keep the animals off the beach, as their presence would endanger the lives of drivers. Dogs found on the beach during the days of the events will be summarily shot.

Only members of the Florida East Coast Automobile Association, their immediate families and a limited number of guests are allowed access to the clubhouse. No male resident of Volusia County is eligible to be a guest.

All races will either start or finish in front of the grand stand.

Grand stand admission will be 25 cents, or boxes holding 6 persons may be secured for $3.00 per day. Tickets for boxes will be on sale at Hankins' drug store.

T. E. FITZGERALD, Secretary,

Florida East Coast Automobile Association

A "Hoodoo" Buddha.

Lady Dorothy Nevill in her "Reminiscences" records an example of the so called "malevolent influence" of an inanimate object upon the fortunes of its possessors similar to that said to have been exerted by the Hope diamond, now sunk beneath the waves. From the day a miniature Buddha from Burma of charming workmanship entered her house everything went amiss. Its installation in the drawing room "was followed by a perfect avalanche of catastrophes." Within a week a son failed in business. Household pets came to tragic ends. A favorite pony was suddenly paralyzed, "and this on the very eve of an election in which it was to assist by conveying Conservative voters to the poll," from which it is inferred that the Buddha was not favorable to the Tory party. A few days later a neighboring chimney crashed down upon a wing of Lady Dorothy's house, doing much damage. Shortly afterward the Buddha was sent on loan to the Indian museum, where, after some minor disturbances, it settled quietly down and has since remained.

Postponed Her Bath.

Miss Flora Shaw as correspondent of the London Times was once traveling through Africa in a bullock wagon. The sun was blazing; the bullocks were slow; the dust was indescribable. She was making for a frontier town, where she anticipated the comforts of a bath. At the entrance to the place Miss Shaw, dead beat, dusty and irritable, found herself confronted with the ordeal of a public reception. The officials read her a welcome. She was as civil as she could be. Then she bolted for the hotel. She gave but one order—"Hot water, quick!"

She sat on the edge of the bed and waited. Some minutes passed. At last a black servant entered with a tin vessel, in which there was something steaming. Seizing it, Miss Shaw poured out a milky, odoriferous liquid. She turned to the servant for an explanation.

The hotel was very short of water. As a distinguished guest a point had been stretched for her. They had sent her the water in which the fish had just been boiled!

Candy and Courting.

"Behind a candy counter is a great place to see things," said an observing young woman who sells sweets in a downtown store. "That man who just went out used to buy a big box of candy every Wednesday. We know he was engaged by the way he bought. Then he stayed away two weeks. We know that was when he got married. Then he came regularly once every two weeks, but got cheaper candy. Now he comes once in a great while and takes home the 'old fashioned broken' kind. They're all that way, but take a little fresh start when they become interested some time later in chocolate cigarettes."

HIS TRAGIC DREAM.

A Grim Ghost Story That Comes From the Netherlands.

The following remarkable ghost story is told of two brothers, members of a distinguished family in Friesland, a province of the Netherlands: The young men were officers in the same regiment, and their only fault--a certain rash valor, so different from the quiet prudence so characteristic of their nation--made their comrades almost idolize them.

These young officers were exceedingly anxious to see a ghost and took a great deal of pains to plunge into all sorts of gloomy places in the hope of finding them terrified by beings from the other world. At last they seemed to find the orthodox old castle with its haunted room. Everybody bore witness to the horrible sights and sounds nightly to be seen and heard therein, and these young gentlemen determined to pass the night there.

It was Christmas eve, and they provided themselves with a good supper and a bottle of wine each, a fire, lights and loaded pistols. The hours wore on. No ghost was seen; no ghostly sounds were heard. The younger brother, wrapped closely in his warm cloak, laid his head on the table and deliberately resigned himself to a comfortable sleep. The elder brother, though exceedingly weary, determined to remain awake and await the issue of events.

After awhile a noise roused him from a reverie into which he had fallen. He raised his eyes and beheld the wall opening in front of his seat.
Through the opening glided a tall figure in white, who signed to him to follow.

The rose and followed the figure through long, damp, dark passages till they reached a large, brilliantly lighted room where a ball was going on.
Above the strains of music and the din of voices pierced a strange, sharp, clicking sound, like the notes of castanets.

Bewildered and dazzled by this sudden transition from darkness and silence to this gay festive scene, it was some moments before he could collect his senses, but he was shocked by perceiving that these gayly dressed ladies and their richly uniformed cavaliers were skeletons, and the curious sound that impressed him so strangely was the clicking of fleshless jaws!

The figure at his side ordered him to take a partner from this hideous throng, which he refused to do. Irritated at this refusal, the figure raised his arm to strike, but the officer instantly leveled at him the pistol he had continued to grasp and discharged it full in his face.

With the shock and report he started to his feet. The white figure, the ballroom, the fearful, ghastly dancers, all had vanished, and he was in the room where he had supped, but his brother lay dying at his side.

He had shot him in his dream and awakened only to receive his last utterance. From that awful Christmas night he was an altered man. All the gaiety had gone out of his life, all the sunshine had faded from his days, and after a few years of unavailingly anguish of remorse he found himself unable to bear the burden of his regrets and put an end to his life.

To Gauge His Wife's Temper.

"I heard about a peculiar case of henpecked husband recently," said a young woman the other day.

"What was it?" her friend inquired.
"There is a man who has some difficulty in gauging his wife's temper. At times she is considerate of his welfare, and at other times--well, he rather thinks that married life is a failure.

"He has a peculiar manner of finding out the state of his wife's feeling toward him. In the evening when he returns home from work he never steps into the house without going through a sort of ceremony. First he throws his hat in the house, and then he seats himself on the steps and waits. If five minutes pass without the hat being thrown out again he enters and generally finds his wife very agreeable. However, if the hat is thrown out again the unfortunate man seeks hospitality for the night somewhere else rather than brave the anger of his helpmeet."

The Fishing Otter.

The otter used by Scottish poachers is one of the most deadly fishing instruments known. In some waters it is far more effective than a net.
It may be described as a water kite, which serves to take out over the water a line bearing fifty or more flies.
The otter itself is a floating piece of board leaded along one side to keep it upright. The poacher walks along the side of the loch or river, letting out the fly decorated line as he goes, the otter board gradually working out toward the center. An enormous area of water is fished at one time and numbers of fish are killed.

A Drop of Water.

A gallon of distilled water weighs 8.339 pounds, and, there being four quarts to the gallon, and two pints to the quart, and sixteen fluid ounces to the pint, and two tablespoonfuls to the fluid ounce, and four teaspoonfuls to the tablespoon, and forty-five drops to the teaspoon, a drop of water weighs 0.00018057 pound, slightly more.

HIS THOROUGHbred.

A Deal the Horseman Put Through on the Dead Quiet.

A man known roundabout as a lover and possessor of fine horses was lately driving one of his favorite steeds along a suburban road when he came upon another horse lover, almost as well known, who was driving in the opposite direction. Seemingly pleased to meet each other, both drew up alongside.

"I heard only yesterday that you'd gone away and brought back a new thoroughbred," greeted the second horseman.

"Yep," gleefully returned the first horseman; "I'm just after leaving her back home while I give this horse a little spin for his liver."

"Think she'll suit?" asked the second man, squinting good humoredly.

"Well, you know my style, old man.
She can step along in the best class, and she's got a pedigree eclipsing any around here."

"How long have you had her?"

"Just four days," answered the first horseman in the same gleeful tone, "but I've had my eyes on her for some time back."

"Carried this deal through a little on the quiet, didn't you?"

"Yep," laughed the first man, with a head shake of satisfaction.

"Is she a record breaker?"

"Sure thing; wouldn't have any other. Wait till you fellows get a glimpse of her, and if you don't agree that I've still got my eyes for winners I'll eat the tail off that horse there."

Suddenly the second horseman leaned over toward his friend and thrust out his hand in palpable earnestness.

"Accept my congratulations," said he, "and also give 'em to your--your thoroughbred!"

"I will!" heartily returned the other man, gripping the proffered fist. "Be sure to come in and see us," he added as his friend prepared to drive on.
"I know she'll be tickled to meet a friend of mine; she isn't too high hitched for that, old man. That's her winning quality. She's a wife fit for a horse judge!"--Detroit Free Press.

THE QUICKEST WAY.

How One Might Travel 190 Miles in About Ten Minutes.

It is estimated that if all mechanical difficulties could be removed and sufficient power developed the minimum time in which passengers could be transported over the eighty-five miles from New York to Philadelphia would be six minutes and forty-four seconds and for the 190 miles from Boston to New York ten minutes and four seconds. A correspondent of the Scientific American who has been working on the problem says that the trains would have to be run in a vacuum to prevent their being heated to incan-descence by the resistance of the air.
They would have to be held in suspension in the vacuum tube through which they traveled, for the slightest contact with the sides of the tube would result in enormous friction.
The cars might be held in suspension by the propulsion of opposing magnets on the cars and on the tubes respectively. When thus isolated they could be propelled only by the power of magnetism. The energy consumed in propelling the cars would be comparatively low.

To avoid shock or jar the trains would travel faster and faster until one-half of the distance should be covered and then slow down until the destination should be reached. When the rate of acceleration is just such as can be borne with comfort the limit is attained. The effect on the passengers would be a continuous pressure against the back of the seat, as when a car is started suddenly, for the first half of the journey, and then in order to prevent them from pitching out of their seats the chairs would be turned in the opposite direction for the rest of the journey, during which the same sensation would be felt.

At the speed named the passengers would be traveling for each half of the distance one-third as fast as they could fall through the same space under the attraction of gravity.

The Two Angels.

The following allegory is told among the Turks:

Every man has two guardian angels, one on his right shoulder and one on his left. In doing good the angel on the right shoulder notes it down and sets a seal upon it, for what is done is done forever. When evil is committed the angel on the left shoulder writes it down, but he waits until midnight before he seals it. If by that time the man bows his head and says, "Gracious Allah, I have sinned; forgive me!" the angel blots out the fault, but if not he seals it at midnight, and then the angel on the right shoulder weeps.

A Canine Feat.

A blind man, guided by a large and athletic dog, went down the street the other day. Just as they turned a corner the blind man's dog saw a dog it knew and darted forward in a way that threw the sightless mendicant to the ground. He was speedily assisted to his feet, however, by a waggish passerby, who remarked that he had heard some remarkable stories of the feats performed by dogs, but this was the first time he had ever known one to pull down the blind.

THE SAN SOUCI CLUB HELD REGULAR MEETING.

The San Souci Club, of Seabreeze and Daytona Beach, were entertained at the home of Mrs. J. P. Esch, on Peninsula Drive, Thursday afternoon at the regular semi-monthly meeting.
The study hour was spent in reading and studying Shakespeare's "Merry Wives of Windsor." During the social half hour dainty refreshments were served.

ENTERTAINED AT BEACH PICNIC AND LUNCHEON.

Mrs. C. Hinks, of The Magnolia, entertained the guests of the house and a number of Daytona Beach friends with a picnic dinner at the beach Friday. The tables were spread and the dinner set on the front porch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Coates, Seabreeze avenue. An hour's enjoyment on the beach had given the party keen appetites for the tempting luncheon set. Hot coffee, tea and ice cream were appreciated by the picnickers. About thirty-five guests sat around the board. After dinner the guests broke into groups, many returning to the beach for an hour's enjoyment before the setting their faces toward The Magnolia.

COMMODORE C. G. BURGESS TRYING OUT NEW

Commodore C. G. Burgess 60-horse power Stearns motor arrived yesterday, was unloaded morning at seven o'clock and the Commodore was spinning Beach street on a trial run, proved entirely satisfactory in running smoothly in every part.
The machine is finished in a olive green, with gold stripes the cushions are also of olive green.
It is indeed a very handsome luxurious looking car, and it seem that Commodore Burgess now have reached the height of possible desire in the automobile line.

"ALASKA" TRAVELOGUE TO BE GIVEN TONIGHT

The third, and what was inter-as the last night of the Lincoln velogue proved conclusively this entertainment is more pop-than any given previously in Da-tona, for every seat in the house occupied by the audience. The of Daytona society. The Travellogue itself, on the Grand Canyon and Yosemite, was splendid, and the tion pictures were Mr. Lincoln's usual standard of excellence.
Views of the Oklawaha River Florida were greatly appreciated.
So insistent was the demand a repetition of his first Travellogue that Mr. Lincoln will tonight his wonderful subject, Alaska.
Land of the Midnight Sun, at Opera House. This will be farewell appearance of Mr. Lincoln as his other dates prevent
